

House Resolution No.

Whereas, it is with great pride and sincere admiration that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize an outstanding Missouri citizen who has demonstrated exceptional skill as a leader of his peers; and

Whereas, David Denton of St. Joseph, Missouri, recently received top honors for excellence in competition during the 2004 International Delta Epsilon Chi Career Development Conference held in Nashville, Tennessee; and

Whereas, one of seventeen high school students to receive international recognition, David Denton put forth a tremendous degree of effort while competing with sixteen thousand of the best and brightest high school marketing students from across the United States and Canada; and

Whereas, Delta Epsilon Chi's internationally recognized program of competitive events uses interviews, tests, role-plays, and written project reports to evaluate marketing and management skills identified by the national business community as essential for success in the business world of today; and

Whereas, an outstanding student at St. Joseph Central High School in St. Joseph where he has been named a DECA First Place District and Fourth Place state winner in E-commerce Business Plan and a First Place MARSEF Science Fair winner, David Denton received Top 10 honors in International Delta Epsilon Chi Competition in the E-commerce Business Plan Event; and

Whereas, David Denton holds local, state, and national Delta Epsilon Chi membership and takes pride in the enviable list of achievement he has attained at St. Joseph Central High School as Student Body Treasurer and member of the Student Council and Student Senate; and

Whereas, David Denton has achieved his every ambition with the love, support, and encouragement he has continually received from his proud and loving parents, David and Joyce Denton, and his brothers, Nick and Joey:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty congratulations to David Denton at this proud moment of well-deserved distinction, and in wishing him only the very best of success in all his future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for David Denton as he is honored at the Missouri Governor's Mansion in Jefferson City on May 14, 2004.
